heart to Marry Another?

Says She Joined in a Scheme to Get His Money.

When the case of John Reilly, who is charged by his pretty sweetheart, Mary A. Hennessey, with decoying her to Rockaway Beach and roubing her of $147, was called this morning in Justice Tighe's court, in Brooklyn, the com plainant did not appear. John Hennessey, whose adopted daughter Mary is, was there, bowever, and at his request Relliy was held in $1,500 ball for examnation next Tuesday. He went to jail.

The fact that Miss Hennessy was not in court to prosecute after swearing to the complaint, particularly since Relliy added insult to injury by sending her an invitation after taking the money from her to attend his marriage with Miss Della Lee, of 671 Hicks street, her rival, caused surprise and comment.

essey swore that she, too, was engaged to be married to Reilly. The knot was to have been tied last Monday, and when the girl informed her father about it he gave her blessing and $150 to set up housekeeping. She confided the story of her father's gener osity to Reilly, whereat he rejoiced. lie then proposed an ante-nuptial trip to Rockaway ach, she said, and she consented. He told to live in.
